

Luke Zeller

Biographical Information

Luke, the oldest Zeller boy, grew up in Washington, Indiana. At Washington High School, Luke graduated as valedictorian with a 4.0 GPA, won the Mr. Basketball award, was named to the McDonald's All-American Team, and was awarded the Trester Mental Attitude Award after hitting a half-court shot to lead the Hatchets to a state championship. Luke played college ball at the University of Notre Dame graduating with a degree in Business Management and Entrepreneurship. His professional basketball career with the Phoenix Suns took him to Japan, Lithuania, California, Texas, and Arizona. Luke founded DistinXion in 2010 and has served as the President since. He is also a certified Gallup Strengths Coach. Luke married Hope in 2010 and they have an adorable son, Kyston.